Membership.

The report itself is delayed while the chair returns from abroad. Incoming co-chair Frann Bennett described renewal procedures. There will be an option to renew online beginning July 1, when charges can be assigned to the proper fiscal year. Checks are accepted anytime; they will be cashed beginning July 1. Membership is $45; paper updates for the yearbook are $10; there are additional charges for listings for commission weavers and teachers. Susan will email the membership form, which also includes options for woven samples. Reminders will be emailed to those who have not yet renewed.

Nominating. Susan Pippin, Eileen Crawford.

The slate of new officers and standing committee chairs was presented. A motion was made and seconded to accept the slate, and the motion passed unanimously.

Ratings. Deb Watson.

NEWS. Susan Haggerty. The guild responsibility this year is the Fashion Show. Sign-up sheets are available.

Guild challenge. Beth Guertin. This year the challenge was drawn cards in 4 categories. More people participated than in other years. Thanks to all for filling the online form for the book.

100th Anniversary. Beth Guertin. Still working on the theme.

Samples. Ro Spinelli. This year there was a change. On the renewal form you could check if you wanted woven samples in addition to the digital one. Samples were made available in folders for those who had checked the woven option. For an additional $4, those samples will be mailed at the end of the year to those who did not pick them up at meetings. If that postage was not paid, the samples will be donated to the NEWS beginning weaving class.
