

Report of the Ratings Committee, 2016-2017

As Chair of the Ratings Committee, I answered questions from prospective applicants mostly via email. I held an informal morning workshop in September to address questions from interested Apprentice weavers. We felt that that was a success and plan one for Journeyman weavers in the fall of 2017.

There was only one applicant for a rating this year and she passed the Apprentice rating successfully. I selected a jury of three judges who evaluated her work independently. They put in a lot of time and hard work. We hope that more weavers will submit next year.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah Watson, Chair
