100th Anniversary Celebration

In 2022 WGB will celebrate their centennial anniversary by having two exhibits at local museums.

The show at Fuller Craft Museum will be a juried exhibit featuring the work of many of our talented weavers. The exhibit will run from May 2022 through September 2022. The Call for Artists (Separate Link on the Website) presents the theme for weaving and the process for submitting work. There will be an opening reception at Fuller, date to be determined.

The second venue will be at the Charles River Museum of Industry and Innovation, where weaving in mills began. The Lowell Mills were modeled after the processes set up in Waltham. Our exhibit will feature Weavers Guild of Boston's rich history, including our educational programs, our ratings program, and the individual weavers who have had an influence on the weaving world. Members will have another place to exhibit work, including a beautiful display of cascading scarves from our annual challenges. This exhibit will run from July 2022 through 2023. There will be opportunities for weaving demonstrations and a speaker series open to the public.

Other celebrations

There will be a party at CRM to celebrate the 100th, and the May 2023 Guild meeting.

There will be many opportunities for members to volunteer.
