

WGB General Meeting
9 November 2016

Westboro Congregational Church
72 attendees

Dean Diane Chaisson called the meeting to order at 12:30. She welcomed the many new faces, adding that the membership chair was not well. She drew names for doorprizes.

Sale. Ginny Longley, Nancy Barry, Elizabeth Springett

The sale grossed over $30,000; final numbers are not in. Beth Guertin has checks for weavers who sold things. Please send any comments by email. The plain weave challenge items are here for pickup.

Fuller Craft Museum is looking for a weaving teacher. They invited consignments of woven items other than scarves for their holiday sale.

Education Grants. Martha Rossman

RISD, U Mass Dartmouth, and Mass Art were contacted to invite students to apply for a free guild membership. A student at Dartmouth and a recent grad of RISD have been accepted. RISD pointed out that students are busy when we have our meetings, and many do not have cars.

Emily Tipple met with Sue, Diane, Carol and Beth. She was happy to have come last month, and her professor was thrilled with her reception here. Her report will be presented to the Board in December

Morning Workshops. People reported on the morning classes.

Spring Workshop is about 3/4 full.

Show and Tell. Sally Eyring showed several pieces from Peru; Diana Frost a gold & white runner in Quigley (4 tie-down); Carol Wooten a vest made from yardage from Convergence.

The meeting finished at 12:50.
